Devotional

A person with a backpack is walking away from the viewer on a vast, flat, reddish-brown landscape. The person is in the center of the frame, leaving a trail of footprints behind them. In the background, there is a range of mountains under a blue sky with some white clouds. The overall scene is one of a journey or pilgrimage.

INTO THE PROMISE
LAND

DAY 1: Be Still

“The LORD will fight for you while you keep still.”

Exodus 14:14

In a world with turbulence, bumps, and hills, learning to lean into the world amid the noise will bring us clarity and direction.

God wants us to draw near to him and be still to hear what he has to say. When we are busy and overwhelmed, we fall apart from God's promises.

He will take care of all our worries, fears, and doubts as we are still.

It's so easy sometimes to put our hands and meddle around in a situation. It seems like it's the best thing to do, but in reality it's the complete opposite.

Trusting God that he will fight our battles and work on our behalf is a PROCLAMATION OF FAITH!

DAY 2:

Trust

“But blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord,
whose confidence is in him.”

Jeremiah 17:7

Along the path, wondering around into the desert of what we are doing, we get lost.

We feel Down, Lost, Confused and Stuck. Wanting to turn back to what is comfortable in life and not knowing what's to come. Keep on looking forward to what the Lord has promised in our lives.

As we put our eyes on him and trust that everything will turn out okay, we will fulfill and have all we set our mind towards.

Continue leaning on him and trusting that everything will turn out.
Perfectly!

DAY 3: Letting Go

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. Old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new
2 Corinthians 5:17

Letting go is hard, its so easier to hold on to the emotions of the past, but the people they are damaging are us.

As God forgives us, let us forgive others and let go of the emotions of the past.

You are made a new creation; the old is gone. Letting go allows God to reform your eyes, to see the world through a whole new lenses.

When we see the world through a different lens, our entire life changes into a new creation!

Continue to be patient and let go of the exceptions and outcomes of people or things in your life!

DAY 4: Lean In

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding

Proverbs 3:5

Trust the Lord will take care of everything in your life,
and Lean on him for dependence.

In our own strength we are weak and foolish, but depending on an all-knowing, all-powerful father, is Wise.

It's so easy to do what we think is best, like a child
going out into the world.

Without the proper guidance from a loving father that teaches us the right way to go and direction to take,
we'll feel lost and fearful of what's to come.

Depending on God and trusting Him to make things right will bring success in all things!

DAY 5: Obey

Walk in obedience to all that the Lord your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess
Deuteronomy 5:33

Live Long and Prosper with God

Being obedient to God and leading his people and guiding them on the right path of life will prolong your days on Earth.

It's so easy to get distracted or find ourselves disconnected from God using things of comfort that numb us from what God wants for us.

The Walk is an uncomfortable journey
Obeying Him will lead to a life of prosperity!

DAY 6: Be Steadfast

Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:58

The journey is difficult and it is easy to give up on what you are doing because there is no progress being made

God is teaching you to become steadfast and build an immovable mind

During the day there will always be hills and valleys, but God wants the best for you.

Growth takes place during the battles of life where, depending on God, is the only way

Be steadfast and patient as God is helping you become victorious in Life

DAY 7: Rejoice

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again:

Rejoice!

Philippians 4:4

Praise the Lord for he is Good and brings Goodness in your Life

God gives us so many things in Life to be grateful for

Look to him and all the blessings he has provided and let us be reminded that we are made new through him

Through the hills and valleys of life, remember to Thank God for Everything as it is a learning and growing experience

He will bring you to where you were promised to go

Continue to Rejoice, and Praise Him for His Goodness and Mercy that endures forever!
